This quotation is made without engagement and is based on current rates, of freight, inland transportation, currency exchange rates and other local charges. Should carriers rates or currency fluctuations dictate, we reserve the right to adjust rates accordingly, either with or without prior notice. All things remaining equal, we will endeavour to hold our quoted rates as long as possible.

With respect we reserve the option to withdraw our quotation if not accepted within thirty days from date of issue.

Please note all business is undertaken and services rendered by International Trade Management Pty Ltd or its subsidiaries are subject to the attached Standard Trading Conditions and Terms of Payment.

Insurance - in accordance with our Standard Trading Conditions, clause 11, which reads in part - "no insurance will be effected except upon express instructions as to the risk or risks to be insured against and the value or values to be insured given in writing.....". Subject to the foregoing, ITM is happy to provide a quotation and make the necessary arrangements on a ship-by-ship basis as soon as practicable after details of the carrying vessel/aircraft are known.
